“ Dear Family, I was saddened to read of your loss and I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dear mother, sister, daughter and grandmoher Karen Wolner. As a former cancer patient myself, I can only imagine the pain you must feel. I pray that you can find hope in the Bible: 1) A loving God would never take our loved ones: (James 1:13) ?With evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone.? 2) God will comfort you: (Psalm 34:18) ? Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; And those who are crushed in spirit he saves.? 3) Jesus Christ, thru God?s Kingdom, gives us a wonderful hope, namely living in a paradise on earth and seeing the resurrection of our dead loved ones. (Luke 23:43; John 5:28, 29) Hope this comforts you like it has my family during loss.

i met karen through mutual friends when i went to athens high school. i was a few years younger.
i hit some hard times in the mid 80's and karen let me move in with her and her two children for a little while.
i will remember karen for her great smile, her hearty laugh and her "corny" sense of humor.
rest in god's eternal peace, my friend.

“ I met Karen while bartending at the Wooden Eagle...she was a caring and generous person who went out of her way to make everyone happy. All the regulars fell in love with her personality and love of life. Always attending social gatherings and bringing her lovely smile wherever she went.
Karen will be missed by so many people and our hearts go out to her family...Marie Miller and Family “ Karen I will miss your welcoming smile and generous spirit. You have always helped anyone that needed it regardless of the circumstance. I have a lot of wonderful memories in my heart of our time together going back many many years. My heart aches for your family and your very dear friends that have been by your side to ease your suffering. I take comfort knowing you are not far away and will always be with us, your smile will forever be in our hearts. I will miss you my very dear friend.

“ We were acquaintances that had met through mutual friends. You were loved so much by so many: your light will shine in their hearts for eternity. Your laughter will ring in their ears, your kindness will be spoken from their lips and they will speak your name with love for years to come. Such is the testimony of true friendship.

My deepest condolences to the family.

“ Karen your smile, and love for your friends and family is what I will always remember about you. Not to mention the material things that I never in the thirty plus years knew were so important to you, like 700 count pillow cases and REAL popsicles with real fruit juice. You brought joy to many and lived an unselfish life. I Loved our time together and will cherish the look on your face when I brought you the raspberry white chocolate cake just days before you left us, and you said "What the hell, that is to big"
