“ I just heard today (February 9) that our dear family friend, Mrs. Domienik has gone to her final rest. My deepest condolences to her family. We all grew up together and Mrs. Domienik was my mother’s best friend.

Some of my fondest memories of childhood and young adulthood figure prominently around the Domienik family. The cottage in Caseville, the hand-me-down clothes that passed through our families for many years, the love and sincere caring was (and is) unmatched.

Mrs. Domienik was the most genuinely kind and loving woman. May her spirit soar! May her memory live on in our words and deeds. The world needs more people like her. Love to all.

With my sympathies and love,

Laura Bredeson
