Kathleen "Kay" Poli, of Sterling Heights, MI, passed away after a 19 year battle with cancer

Predeceased by loving parents Bruno and Catherine Poli, as well as brothers Charles, Robert and Jerry Poli.

Loving sister of Donald (Sandy) Poli.

Dear sister in law of Ann Poli and Terry Poli.

Dearest aunt of Jannine (Roger) Molnar, Jeffrey (Rebecca) Poli, Donny (Angie) Poli, Cathy Poli, Denise (Jeff) Hayner, Sue Bunn, Rob Poli, Lisa (Brad) Martin, Kris (Dave) Kenel, Alex Poli and Jeremy Poli. Predeceased by niece Michele Heuer.

Survived by Gregg Heuer, beloved husband of the late Michelle Heuer. Also survived by many great nieces and nephews.

Kay was born in Detroit, MI. She graduated from Nativity High School in Detroit and went on to a 30 year career with the United States Postal Service.

She was active in sports, playing semi-pro women's football in the early 70's.

She played softball for many years and even coached a girl's softball team at Lincoln High School in Detroit for a couple of years.

She loved to travel and go camping with friends and family. She has traveled to many states and even took a cruise to Alaska twice!. She was adventurous, doing many things from parasailing to hiking in the Grand Canyon.

She always made up games for the kids at family gatherings, going so far as to build her own miniature golf course in her backyard!
