

Kathleen Wojas

January 17, 1946 - June 14, 2021

Kathleen (Kathy) (Wittner) Wojas of Sterling Heights, MI, passed on June 14, 2021 peacefully with her family surrounding her. She was the beloved wife of Jerome Wojas for over 57 years. Much loved Mom of Jacqueline Wojas (Carl Rose), Julie Wojas, and Janice Zryd (Jeff Zryd). Adored Nana to Jake Zryd and Joel Zryd. Loving sister to Mary Ann Warner (Ken), the late Joann Lichocki (Dennis), and the late Thomas. Much loved daughter of the late George and Julia Wittner. Caring Aunt to seven and Great Aunt to eight. Wonderful friend to many.

In her 75 years of life she was involved in many groups and church activities. She was a member for over 50 years of the Macomb County Mothers of Twins Club after the biggest surprise of her life in giving birth to twins in 1968 on two separate days. She met many lifelong friends in this group and was the President for a term. After her retirement from General Motors in the Human Resources Department she continued to meet with her co-workers for lunch. She loved to sing in the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Choir for many years and made new friends there. Kathy also enjoyed being a member of the Red Hats – Ready to Go Reds.

One of the greatest joys of her life was when she became a Nana. She drove to Chicago on her own to be there when her first Grandson was born.

Kathy always kept the house looking beautiful with flowers surrounding it and was also an amazing flower arranger. Her daughter Julie is now finding joy in this. She dabbled in cross-stich, painting, making scarves and collecting bears. Anyone who received a present from her got to experience her beautiful bows that she made. Her Christmas gatherings are still talked about, especially the fun in Christmas BINGO.

She was also affectionately known as Auntie Cavity, AK, and Blue Auntie Kathy. Kathy was a God Mother to John Warner and Sarah (Lichocki) Tallman.

“ Sorry to hear of the loss. I knew the Wojas Family on a more personal level. Any passing is sad to hear. Kathleen was quite accepting of folks. It's important to make the most of life. Kathleen was giving, as well as compassionate. She also respected others. Thank you, Kathleen, for being a light in people's lives. May her relatives be comforted in this time of need.
