“ Haven't seen Pan Kalinowski in many years but when I did used to see him he always wore an awesome smile, was always very gregarious and welcoming. I know he and Pani Kalinowska raised three awesome sons who now have awesome families. Our heartfelt condolences go out to the family. They, and he, remain in our hearts and prayers. Wieczny odpoczynek racz mu nas Panie... Czuwaj Roman and Laura

“ I have known Kazimierz for a long time, but we seldom spoke. I also know his sons, wife and other family members. I always remember that Kazimierz was somewhere around when the Scouts had their camps or some function. I also remember the incredible sense of humor. Everyone could not help but smile upon meeting him because he projected such a sense of contentment and happiness. The passing of such a wonderful father, grandfather and great grandfather is a great loss to the whole family, especially the grandchildren. I am sure that they will have many stories to tell their own families and parents when the family gets together.
Czuwaj!

“ We only met you approximately six years ago...as your grandson, Peter, and our daughter, Tara, were planning their wedding. And just five months ago they presented you and Daniela with your first great-granddaughter, Nora. All of us will insure that Nora learns about you...especially your kindness and your humor. We feel blessed that you came into our lives.
