“ First time I met Keith is when I married his cousin Grant and we had come to visit all the relatives in Michigan and my family in Ohio. You reminded me a lot of my husband grand his cousin. Very sweet caring guy. I'm so sorry he passed away so young. But I am grateful that he's no longer in pain. Rest in peace Keith and I hope your cousin Grant was waiting for you I know how upset you were when he passed away as well. Love you always Tammy, Marina and Vincente Cuzzocrea

“ Keith grew up to be a very kind, generous, caring man. He kept all his hard feelings inside. He would do anything for anyone who needed his help. He reminds me a lot of my son Grant. Love Aunt Pat

“ My great coworker Russ was a loving brother to Keith. It was very hard to see my coworker go thru this time with his brother & his family! I Pray you all know now he is with god & his pain & suffering is over. May you all hold on to each other & understand your brother only wanted one thing. That the family stay together & get thru this tragic time TOGETHER! RIP may your Soul rise High into Heaven with not a Care in the World from this Day Forward. Amen RIP Keith! God Bless!❤️🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏 Love Carol
