“ Happy 59th birthday, Ken. In the nine years you've been gone, Matthew and Ryan would make you proud. It's sad you others missed them becoming the wonderful men they are today. It's hard to believe you're 59! This family misses you, and your sons miss you more than you know. Your absence is felt by your sons every day. <3

“ To the family, know that Kenny was a good kind hearted soul, we love him and will cherish our memories, so many special moments we shared with him, his marriage and the birth of his sons which was the love of his life so many years ago. Try to remember the good times and find peace in your hearts because he truly loved his family. Our prayers and thoughts are with you always. Lots of love. The Davis family.

“ Another old friend is gone but will not be forgotten. Kenny Herring shared alot of life experiences along our way, and was always close to out hearts even though our paths went different ways. Kenny had a kind soul who brought alot of fun and laughter to our lives, when we got together and sometimes hell too (lol) but we cared for him. Kenny we will miss you and will carry sorrow through time that we weren't able to help you through your rough times. Lots of love old friend, Glinda Davis and So long my brother, hope your in a better place, Mike Davis.
