“ I met Ken over 20 years ago and enjoyed hearing about his life adventures and always reinventing himself, revealing his many talents -- grad school in philosophy, film (making and enjoying), making recordings for the blind, many various careers. His incredible voice -- at once articulate, soothing, deep and wonderful tonality (not sure if that's the right word but those who knew him recall how wonderful his voice was) -- is one I can still hear in my mind quite vividly. He came to my new years' eve parties for many years and I sorely missed him this year.

“ I've know Ken for the last 20 years. We've shared many good times and stayed connected over this period. He was a straight up kind of guy, always honest, humble and open. He will be missed. The attached picture is from a party at Jeannette Saquet's home in somewhere about 1995.

Channel 56 is where I met Ken Kott probably 20 yrs ago. We were both volunteers & loved public broadcasting. We became instant life long friends. He was at a golf outing in 1993 & won a beautiful wheelbarrow. I had just bought my first house & he knew I loved to be outside in the garden. He called me & said "what the heck am I gonna do with a wheelbarrow? U want it as a house warming gift?" I was THRILLED!! I still have that wheelbarrow & now it is more special to me than ever.... I loved our friendship, Ken! Until we meet again, rest in peace. U r free... Free at last*

“ Ken Kott was one of my favorite volunteers for WTVS/Detroit Public TV. As a station staff person, I found it fun to work with this smiling, witty guy on pledge drives and auctions in Studio A in the old WTVS building on Second Ave. May he rest in peace and may God comfort the family and all who knew and cared for him. Adieu, Ken.

“ Ken loved making movies almost as much as I, and he was always there whenever we needed a spare hand, a food runner, or a slate person. A week before he passed, Ken mentioned he wanted to do more and if any projects were in the works, he was r his hat in the ring. We were supposed to re-do a voiceover this week for a movie being made in Ohio but, alas, time ran out. We shared some pretty interesting moments on set mostly but even in the car when he was driving me when I couldn't. I will miss him. I do already.
