

Krystyna A. Nowinska

June 22, 1932 - July 23, 2022

Krystyna A. Nowinska was born in Krakow Poland June 22 1932. She was the daughter of Sylwester and Aniela Zuczenia. She was seven years of age when Poland was invaded and she and her brother Wladyslaw experienced the hardships of World War II through the formative years of childhood. After the War, Krystyna came to the United States and married Zdzislaw Nowinski who had been a fighter pilot in Poland, France and England.

Krystyna enjoyed music, art and literature. Poetry was her special favorite. She and her late husband were active in many activities in the Polish-American community. Krystyna loved Jesus Christ above all else and was a faithful Roman Catholic in practice.

Over her long life Krystyna was devoted to family here and in Poland, and was loved by friends, neighbors and acquaintances alike. Always kind, gentle and articulate, she leaves behind the memories of a beautiful life.
