“ Scott, I was so sorry to hear about Kyle. I remember the many times I took Kyle to work at the golf course and what a good kid he was. He is in heaven now where mom will take care of him for you. I know how upset and sad you are but try to take some comfort in knowing that Kyle is at peace with God.

“ Sharon I am so sorry for your loss. I could never imagine losing a child. From only meeting you a few times I could tell that you are a very strong women. I wish there was something I could say or do to make this all better. The only one who can comfort you is God!! Just know that Kyle was such a wonderful person and he will be missed. He could make anyone laugh and brightened any room he walked into. He never spoke bad about anybody and was always there to just listen never to judge. He was a true person a true friend. One of a kind. He had a heart of gold. I am praying for you and your family. God bless you. -Melissa Waltos
