Peggy and I always enjoyed our times with Jean and Joe at Woodside Bible Church. They were active members of the "Pep" club and we enjoyable being with them on the outings and activities. Jean was so sweet and kind and we loved being with her and will miss her. As a godly woman, she was kind to everyone. Jim & Peggy Gresham

“ Yesterday was a sad day, as I stood by my dear sweet Friends / mom figure s bed and kissed her on her forehead, assuring her it was ok to let go, I told her that everyone has said there goodbye's and told her how much we loved her, that it was her turn to go and Joe would be there at those gates waiting for her. iSo Jean spread those new wings and fly pain free. I know she heard me because she opened those beautiful eyes just enough to let me no. So rest in peace my dear friend. Love u!
