“ I will miss you so much grandpa. Its crazy to think your suddenly gone :(I wish you could squeeze me tight one last time. I will cherish all of the great memories we have had together especially as a young child when we would fish in grandmas back yard and coming to your house in the summer and always having BBQ's. I'm glad I have those great memories to look back on. I love you. Rest in Paradise, we all know your paradise is somewhere in the woods <3

“ I haven't seen Larry in probably 25 years. But I fondly remember learning how to drive a stick shift on his Ford pickup on our way out west antelope hunting. He was also instrumental in my first rabbit, not to mention the times we crow or pigeon hunted with Mike Miller. Vicki you and your family are in my prayers. Ron Winter

“ Larry is my dad and I can't even get my head around the mind numbing grief of his sudden passing. I have lost a father a mentor and a man to look up to. As long as I live I will cherish the memories of Dad and keep them close to my heart. I love you Dad, rest in peace.

“ Larry is my cousin as a small boy camping with him and his family. I always looked up to him and Dave . They were strong and loved the outdoors even back then he was honing his skills as a great outdoorsman. I remember an underground fort they made near their house with several levels. They were just the coolest to me anyway. He never made fun of me and as others have said always had that sly smile on his face. Vicki and family you are in my prayers and I will truly miss that smile.

“ I met Larry when I was 14 years old through one of my best friends. There was a group of us guys that spent a lot time camping, hunting and fishing at Belle River. He stood out in the group as one of the more savvy outdoorsmen and a good guy. Those were good times and become a part of who I am today.
It's been 40 years since I last saw Larry, and it makes me sad to hear about his death at such a young age.

“ I was just sitting here telling a friend about the virtues of Larry and he still makes me laugh. Memories of working at an F Lax job with him and Vicki and "Prince Valiant", and finding a swimming pool under the subfloor! Ummm, now what?? - We're both hunters, and he introduced me to crow hunting. I asked, "So this is fun?" "No, THIS is fun", as he pulls out his electronic crow calls and drives the birds into a frenzy. - The time he was sighting in his bow and put an arrow through the family room wall, suspiciously close to where Vicki was sitting in a chair! And I'll miss Vicki trying to get him to see things her way, "Laaaarry". I don't believe I ever heard him say an unkind word, and he was always kind and thoughtful and ready to help - help drink a beer or lend a hand, or both. I have 20 pounds of his famous venison sausage in the freezer, and I know I'll get choked up every time I pull some out. I'm honored to have known him and grateful for the time he shared. Peace, love and heartfelt prayers and condolences to Vicki and your family. I miss you, Larry, but know you'll ride high on that mountain. Keep an eye on us until we meet again. XO Sandy

“ Larry was a kind man. Always had a smile on his face. He built our deck 40 years ago. We just now have to replace it. Great carpenter. Vicki you are in my thoughts and prayers. May the perpetual light shine upon him and RIP.

“ One of my favorite memories of Larry was the cousins were staying with Grandma in Kentucky. Larry and David fixed up a scarecrow and dressed it in Uncle Jack's clothes and hung it in a tree as you come around a curve in the road. Me, Connie and Vanessa were walking to Grandma's from Uncle Jack's house and we came around the curve and there that thing was hanging and we thought it was Uncle Jack. We screamed and ran all the way back to Uncle Jack's house. Those are the kind of tricks that Larry and David liked to pull on us. Vicki you and all of the family are in our thoughts and prayers. We love you Gary and Shirley Barnes
