

LaVerne "Butch" Biskner

May 5, 1955 - September 24, 2016

Age 61.

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of LaVerne "Butch" Biskner who lost his courageous battle with cancer on September 24, 2016.

Beloved husband of Loretta and proud dad of Alaina and Nicholas, who loved him without measure and will miss him beyond words.

Also left to remember Butch with love and respect are his father Vern Biskner, siblings,

Carl Biskner (Sandra), Mary Richardson (Jeff), Elizabeth McGuire (Patrick), Bill Biskner (Diane), many nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

One of the best things about heaven is that we will be reunited with loved ones who have already passed on; among those Butchs' mother, Mary Louise.

“ *You held my hand when I was small
You caught me when I fell
You are the hero of my childhood
And my later years as well
And every time I think of you
My heart still swells with pride
Though I will always miss you dad
I know you're by my side
In laughter and in sorrow
In sunshine and in rain
I know you're watching over me
Until we meet again*

“ A finding from Uncle Butch's books;

When I look at a patch of dandelions, I see a bunch of weeds that are going to take over my yard. My kids see flowers for Mom and blowing white fluff you can wish on.

When I look at an old drunk and he smiles at me, I see a smelly, dirty person who probably wants my money and I look away. My kids see someone smiling at them and they smile back.

When I hear music I love, I know I can't carry a tune and don't have much rhythm so I sit self-consciously and listen. My kids feel the beat and move to it. They sing out the words. If they don't know them, they make up their own.

When I feel wind on my face, I brace myself against it. I feel it messing up my hair and pulling me back when I walk. My kids close their eyes, spread their arms and fly with it, until they fall to the ground laughing.

When I see a mud puddle I step around it. I see muddy shoes and dirty carpets. My kids sit in it. They see dams to build, rivers to cross and worms to play with.

When I pray I say thee and thou and grant me this, give me that. My kids say, "Hi God! Thanks for my toys and my friends. Please keep the bad dreams away tonight. Sorry, I don't want to go to Heaven yet. I would miss my Mommy and Daddy."

I wonder if we are given kids to teach or to learn from? No wonder God loves little children!!

"Enjoy the little things in life, for one day you may look back and realize they were the big things"!!

“ My memory is what a loving, caring, supportive father he was. One in a million.

“ I am always saddened by the death of a good person. It is from this sadness that a feeling of gratitude emerges. I feel honored to have known them and blessed that their passing serves as a reminder to me that my time on this beautiful earth is limited and that I should seize the opportunity I have to forgive, share, explore, and love. I can think of no greater way to honor my Uncle than to live this way.

“ Uncle Butch was a great guy. When he and Aunt Loretta were first dating, he wanted to take me and my brothers to the movies to see the Star Wars remakes in the 90s. It was a simple gesture, but it meant a lot to us as kids. He jumped right in to being a member of the family, and was really good to us as an uncle. He was always willing to help out with watching us/picking us up if my parents had something urgent come up. You could really count on him to be there for you. I know I was jealous when he first came along, as I was used to having a lot of one-on-one attention with Aunt Loretta, but he quickly grew on me, as he did with everyone, and became family. I will miss him greatly, as will all of us. Rest in peace Uncle Butch.
