

Lawrence E. Karpinski

February 27, 1932 - February 21, 2021

Lawrence Edward Karpinski, 88, of Prudenville, MI, passed away on Sunday, February 21, 2021.

He was born on February 27, 1932 to Walter and Anne (nee Lesiak) Karpinski in Detroit. He graduated from Northeastern High School in 1950, and attended RETS electronic school.

He proudly served in the United States Army during the Korean War, from 1952 to 1954, as a corporal in the 25th Infantry Division.

Lawrence married Dolores Osiborski in 1958 at St. Stanislaus Catholic Church in Detroit and they raised their family in Warren, MI.

He worked for Chrysler and, when he retired, they moved to Prudenville, MI where they enjoyed boating, fishing and going to the casino.

Beloved husband of Dolores, for 60 years. She predeceased him in 2018.

Dear father of Lori (Joseph) Nida and Robert (Colleen) Karpinski. Treasured grandfather of Keith (Dana), Adrian (Benjamin), and Leryn. Proud great-grandfather of Pheona, Claire, Penelope and Amelia. Dear brother of the late Evelyn (late Edward) Fedak, the late Harry (Rose), Robert (Frances)

Karpinski, and the late Doris. He is also survived by many in-laws, nieces and nephews.

Mass of Christian Burial for Lawrence Karpinski will be conducted at a later date. Interment will be at Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly.

“ I worked along side Larry for many years at Chrysler. He was hard working, honest and a man of integrity. He never recieved the recognition he deserved from some members of management at the time. Those managers were too smug & self centered to recognize the value that he was to the company. I'm proud to have called him my friend and colleague. May he rest in piece with his beloved Dolores.
