

Leah Nicole Werkmeister

April 28, 2015

Age 25.

Beloved daughter of Amy and Michael.

Loving sister of Haley.

Cherished granddaughter of Shirley (the late Vincent) Malinski, Thomas Werkmeister, Susan and Bernie.

Dearest niece of Tina, Tommy, Colleen, Daniel, Chuck and Dawn.

We lost a piece of our hearts as we watched our shining star gain her wings. Although we lost her presence here on earth, we've gained the most beautiful guardian angel to watch over us and stand by our side until we meet again.

We love you infinitely, our sweet angel.

We find solace knowing you are finally at peace. "This world is far too cruel for a soul as beautiful as yours".

In lieu of flowers, family suggests donations to Tigerlily Cat Rescue.

“ Until we meet again Leah. Rest in paradise young lady, god has welcomed a new beautiful angel to heaven. We grew up as best friends, and I will never forget, & always cherish the memories we have made together over the years. You always had a gentle heart & a kind soul. We have been through it all, the ups & downs and all in between, and I will continue to look back and smile thinking of our friendship and reminiscing all the great memories we've made. You will be greatly missed & never forgotten. I love you, always have and always will sister.

“ I will always remember your goofy, fun, and outgoing spirit and personality. You was like a little sister, you and Erika spent every moment together and I loved having you around and apart of the family. I'm glad that I have had communication with you this past year, and wish we would have went through with the lunch you wanted to have so badly. It was an honor knowing you in this life and I will remember you always. Love you always Leah Nicole, and my condolences and prayers your loving family.
