“ I worked with Leonard at the Oak Park Library about 38 years ago. My husband and I were reminiscing just last week and Leonard was one of the people we remembered, before we found out about death. We were both sorry to hear of his passing. Len was always so helpful to the employees at the library-- building special shelves and storage units, keeping the library clean and pleasant, and filling the room with the welcome aroma of coffee in the mornings. Len will always remain in my memory as a kind and helpful gentleman.
