

Leonard Edward Gorski

July 23, 1931 - February 28, 2019

Age 87.

Beloved husband of Rose for 60 years.

Loving father of Leonard Gorski, Sharon (Gerald) Guzdziol, Steve (Kori) Gorski, Louise (Terry) Danner and Daniel Gorski.

Dear grandfather of Trisha (Tim) Haak, Travis Kneip and Brittany (Bryan) Bott.

Great grandfather of Penelope Haak.

Survived by his brother Leroy Gorski.

Leonard was the greatest husband and father in the world. He worked for GM for 21 years as a graphic illustrator. Among his many other talents (which were limitless) he was very artistic. He self taught himself to gem cut, loved to restore old cars (Namely, a 1925 Depot Hack), and built a birch bark canoe, which is now shown in a museum in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. He is also the Co-Founder of the Three Fires Muzzle Loader club featured at Greenfield Village. In his spare time he enjoyed fishing and spending time with his family. He will be greatly missed.
