I was a coworker with Lexine at Premiere. It took me a long time to write this because it means I have to accept she's gone. She came into Premiere like a tornado and left like a tornado at her Red Lobster retirement party. I'm glad she got to retire and spend time with family. She made me laugh so hard at work with her funny sayings all the time. I'm surprised we didn't get in trouble more often. I haven't seen a lot of her lately unless she stopped at work or was coming in for Super Bowl Squares but I will never forget her! I will always remember her laugh and her love for her family. She will be missed!
