“ I just found out about Lois's passing and am heartbroken. She was a fighter and a genuinely lovely woman. I had the pleasure of working with her for over 5 years during her battle with scleroderma. She was so positive and strong. I will always hold a place in my heart for her. God bless you, Lois...you are now free. Respectfully-Kristen O'Neill

“ I will remember best, among Lois's many wisdoms, this quote:
"I want to make my mark on the world."

We know that It was vitally important to Lois to live by doing whatever good she could do for others, most especially, for her family. This loving regard for others, intensified during her struggle with scleroderma. She wanted to be among the first to offer comfort, hope, and encouragement to every person who was diagnosed with or going through this terrible disease.

Dear Lois, You made your mark!

Love, Jeanette
