“ That obituary is beautifully written. What a lovely and strong woman she was. Even when Lois was ill herself, she took her Aunt Lois to medical appointments and gave her the love and support she needed.

“ Although she was my only niece, she would have been my favorite if I had had 100 nieces. I never saw her without a beautiful smile, she was so sweet and kind and I love her with all of my heart!

“ Lois was nicknamed "Yo-yo" by her younger brother. I treasure the times we got together over the years and I still called her Yo-yo and she called me Aunt Bug. She loved her family so much. The world lost a wonderful woman. Lauri Slingerland
