“ I am sorry to hear about the death of your love ones. Do you know that Jesus promised a future at (John 5:28,29) which says that do not be amazed but those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. Also notice another scripture at (Acts 24:15) which says that there going to be a resurrection for both the righteous and the unrighteous this scripture is very confronting and also notice another thought at (Revelation 21:4) says death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore the former things had past away. These all the times I am looking forward to see my love ones that I had lost.. I hope this thought confront you and your family and my love goes out to you and your family

“ Dear Gary and Family,
I am so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. She was such a lovely lady and quite the beautiful soul. I distinctly remember her sweet laughter, carrying over the bushes and across the street. I always knew that she was happy and loved her life. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May God Bless all of you, and may you feel the comfort of legions of angels.
Wishing you love & peace, Monica Nouhan

“ We can only dream of the party Jesus has in store for us. Lorrie and Chet are living it this very day. Their dance goes on today and it is beautiful.

Lorrie always reminded me of a Grand and Great lady. A women of many talents but most of all very kind, gracious, and loving. Her smile would light up any room and she always was a good listener. My Mom, Rita, would chat with Lorrie quite often (over the fence). I could never figure out how they could stand their and talk that long without getting tired. I now know it was the sheer joy of friendship and being good neighbors. Ah, the good old days. I know they are catching up now and that is a good thing.

May God Bless You All with His Peace and Love.

“ Loretta had such a warm personality. I met her with her son, Gary, and she absolutely beamed when he spoke. It was so cute to see how proud she was of her son and his family. My condolences to the whole family on your loss.

“ Lorrie and my mother, Ruth, were childhood friends who grew up in the same neighborhood. The two lost touch after they married and began raising their families. When they reconnected many years later, it was as if no time at all had passed.

I had the good fortune of getting to know Lorrie and, as I did, I understood why my mom was proud and happy to count her as a friend. I was able to hear my mother's stories from a different perspective. Lorrie's optimism and positive attitude were uplifting. She was calm, patient and a great listener. I am happy to have known this wonderful human being!
