“ Mrs. Loretta as we called her lived next door to us in Troy. I was 14 when we moved into our home there and their home had an open door policy. She always treated us like family and made us feel welcome. She and her husband Ron were the perfect neighbors and friends to both of my parents as well. I will always remember her in my prayers.

“ We have been very fortunate to have lived across the street from Loretta for over 40 years and have so many memories of her. We will miss watching her standing in her doorway blowing kisses our way; sharing her delicious homemade chicken noodle soup and spaghetti with us; listening to her tell stories, always prefaced with "long story short"; seeing how delighted she would be when we would bring her some of her favorite pizza from Loui's or a homemade treat; always offering to "light a candle" for our visits to our casino, We couldn't have asked for a better neighbor or human being and feel privileged to have known her. Love, Kim and John Vavruska

“ Today my heart is broken. Auntie Lori was a second mom to my sister and I both. Thru our entire childhood she was always there to listen and give her advice on how to handle numerous situations. Always reminding to pray to Blessed Mother, which was her go to person as well. Thru our childhood numerous trips were made to Detroit and Auntie Lori & Uncle Ron's house was our second home. We spent as many birthdays, holidays and vacations there then we did in our own home. Needless to say she was an intricate part of growing up. I can rest easy now knowing she is there taking care of my sister for the rest of eternity.
