“ My happiest moments from childhood were centered around you. The term 'Grandma' will be forever weighted with memories of you: the warmth of your hug, the tenderness of your words, the love that radiated around you, endless laughter and homemade apple pie. You were my favorite person.

You had the most delightful sense of humor; you brought joy to even the darkest moments. You were a little lady but your heart and personality were larger than life. You loved deeply and unconditionally. You were a beautiful, strong woman who touched the hearts and lives of everyone around you. Your body is gone; but your spirit will live on through all of your children, grandchildren and everyone else you have influenced along the way. I love you Gramma. You will be missed but never forgotten.

You lived a wonderful life, but God needs you now; and Heaven will be significantly more awesome with the essence of your soul pulsing through the magnificent splendor of His kingdom.

“ Mom and Grandma Cader was family to all of us. Even though she was my Sister-in-laws Mom she adopted all of us as her own. She was a fiesty lady and one of my Moms best friends. I will miss seeing her when I visit again. Lorraine was very lucky to have such a great family taking care of her when she needed it the most. She loved all of her children and grandchildren and even the new great grandchildren. Peace be with her and our family too because Mom is with Jesus. Love to you all. Margie Lien and family.

“ I will always remember the joy on Lorraine's face when she was brought home Nina. You could tell how she fell in love with her the moment she saw her. I am so glad that she was able to give her such love and companionship. My deepest sympathies.

“To all the Kondrats, our sincerest sympathies at this sad time of the loss of Lorraine. Our connection to Donna's mother was Nina. We had Nina as a rescue dog from Mexico. When we realized that she and our Tucker were not meant to be buddies, we were lucky enough to have Donna's mom take Nina and give her the undivided love and attention she deserved. Thank you Lorraine!”
