“ I knew Lou as the longest and finest member of the Royal Oak Auxiliary Police Dept. He is legendary amongst his fellow officers. I never heard of or had any complaints about Lou in the 20 years I have been with the unit. Lou served the city especially the senior citizens at the Library Summer Concerts and the city commission gave him a great send off when he finally retired. He always related proudly of all his kids. Please let us know if your family needs anything and we will be glad to accomidate. May God grant eternal rest for His good and faithful servant.
