“ *Just learned lately of Lucy's death (she'll always be "Lucy" to me!)
Worked with her quite a bit when she ran the DPD Archives section in putting together annual reports. She was a delight to work with;
an honor to be a friend.*

“ Bruce. Your mother and I attended the FBI Academy in Quantico Va. in 1976. I believe you met us at the airport once. She was an intelligent. wonderful person and I enjoyed our trips to and from the FBI Academy together. Carl Watkins

“ Dear Bruce and Jeanne: I am terribly sorry that my husband and I could not deliver our condolences to you in person. I was a legal advisor to the Detroit Police Department and worked closely with your mom for much of my 35 year career where we became good friends. My husband Michael remembers your mom and you from when he lived on Woodingham between Puritan and McNichols.

I greatly enjoyed our friendship which continued while she worked for the court and in her retirement.

“ Bruce:
To you and you family, my deepest sympathy.
I lost my Mom 5 years ago, and I miss her very much!
I never met your Mom, but I'm sure she was a beautiful person, (aren't all Moms??).
Lean on friends and family, and the Lord,
to get through this.

“ I knew Lucia both from the DPD and the Friend of the Court. Her sense of humor was unforgettable and I always enjoyed seeing her. God bless her and her family.
