“ My father in law passed away peacefully today surrounded by family. We called him sunshine because no matter where he was he always brought warmth in the room. Everyone that I know that met him said he is such a good man. I will miss him dearly. He and I spent many times over the years laughing together at our own jokes and we laughed so hard we would both get tears in our eyes. I'll miss you sunshine and may you rest in peace. One day we will laugh together again. LU

We will miss you very much daddy. Will miss your sense of humor, compassion and understanding. We called you "sunshine" because you could always light up the room no matter what. Your work ethic was like no other. Thank you for teaching me that. You will greatly be missed in the family. The family lost a true of a kind angel. Rest in peace....
