“ Marge and Russ were very special to me. Marge and I went to lunch and we talked for hours about life, church and family. She loved teaching and told me stories about her days with the kids. When they came to my home again we talked and talked. She was so full of life and Jesus. She made a good partner for Russ. She was and always will be a close friend to me.

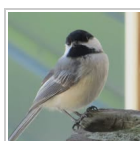

Love Always, Wanda Handorf

“ Marge was a very bold and unique person...when you least expected it she would do the most thoughtful things.. like when I had a surgery she brought my family a complete dinner..and she would send me random emails to say her and Russ were praying for my husband or daughter. She was very special and her energy will be missed.

Hi Russ,

We remember all the church activities and being at your place just hanging out or having dinner with the two of you. And when you and Marge move from Tireman to the apartment in Royal Oak it was nice to have the two of you close by. Marge is a unique soul and was not shy to be herself - she will be missed.
