“ Dear Lewis family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Margie Lewis. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.

“ Dear Family, I was saddened to read of your loss and I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dear wife, mother and sister Margie. I pray that you can find hope in the Bible. Jesus Christ, thru God's Kingdom, in the Bible, gives us the best comfort during times of grief. We can look forward to a resurrection of our loved one and a time when age and sickness will not affect us (1 Corinthians 15:26; John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 33:24) Hope this comforts you like it has my family during loss.

“ I knew Margie through her son Greg, and she was one of the nicest people I have ever met. She will be greatly missed by her family and all who knew her. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. Take comfort in knowing that she is now in her special mansion in Heaven.

“ The Lewis Family,

In this time of sorrow I keep your entire family in my prayers. Margie was a great woman, I got to know her through Greg, I always liked when I called there and her and I would have little talks and catch up. She will be missed greatly by all she touched in this life. Rest assured that Heaven is rejoicing because she is there. My thoughts, prayers and love to you all. John
