

Marian Grzesiak

September 22, 1950 - February 10, 2021

Marian S. Grzesiak, 70, died unexpectedly on February 10, 2021.

Marian was born on September 22, 1950 in Poland to Irena (Szymanek) and Edward Grzesiak. He married his wife Maria (Pietrzak) on November 11, 1972. He was a loving father of Kasia and Honorata.

Marian was a hardworking and honest man. He worked in an underground coal mine from the age of nineteen in Poland for 20 years, before moving to Michigan with his wife and daughters in March of 1990. He worked for an additional 26 years in the USA until his retirement in 2016 at the age of 66.

Marian loved laughter and being light hearted. He could be counted on to crack a joke or two at any gathering. In his free time Marian enjoyed tending to his garden and loved showing off his plants and flowers. He also liked fishing and riding a bike. He was an avid singer and dancer. Marian was the Vice President of the Filaret Choir.

Marian is predeceased by his parents Irena and Edward. He is survived by his wife of 48 years Maria, daughters Kasia with husband Slawomir Suchocki, Honorata Grzesiak-Socha, his loving grandchildren Damian, Erika, Kristian and Adrianna, and his older sister Halina, her husband Witold Kedzierski and their children Marzena and Iwona. He will forever be missed and stay in their hearts and memories.

In lieu of flowers, donations in his intention to Our Lady of Czestochowa Catholic Church would be greatly appreciated.
