“ To my loving Father. You were always there right from the start. You were there when I was born and you've had my back ever since. Even though I didn't understand your choices all the time there was something about you that made me trust you. You have always told me in the end you would be my best friend and I used to think it was funny, but as I got older I started to see it. Within the last year I saw how you were truly my best friend and I did my best to be yours. I had your back no matter whether you were right or wrong as you did mine. I will not be able to take your place, but I will do my best to continue where you left off. I love you dad. I know you're in a better place. Rest peacefully knowing everyone will not forget you. Again, I love you Dad.

“ My dear son Mark (Marko) the world is a much better place after having you in it. Mark I couldn't have asked for a better son you never failed to make me proud to say that's my son, although I have to let you leave this earth you will never leave my heart or life. Mark I love you so very much, and so proud of you. With an aching heart i will let god finish the job I started but was unable to complete. REST EASY MY BABY BOY. God has you now I LOVE YOU SON

“ Mark was so much more than just a great brother.. he was my first friend and my best friend. He was my protector and my rock. There are not enough words to describe the bond that I was lucky enough to share with him. Mark had the biggest, purest heart of anyone I've ever known... he went out of his way to comfort and bring joy to those who were blessed to know and love him. He was a hardworking, honest, good hearted person and I am blessed to call him my brother. Mark was one of a kind and will be missed by all. I love you so very much, Mark!! ♡♡♡♡

“ Mark was the best son a mother could have and he will be truly missed. I cannot think of a person who knew him that did not like him. He loved any and all sports and was turning into a pretty good coach for the little guys. He was generous, kind-hearted and could always cheer you up if you were down. I could go on and on but I just want to say I love him with all of my heart and don't know how I will continue without him! I hope he is in a better place and with the rest of the family cheering them up right now!

“ I'm so incredibly sad at this horrible news. Mark was a fixture in my family's lives. He and my son were good friends and Mark was at our house quite often. I will miss him and his grin and his laughter. I just wish I could have gotten to know His children (now young men) more. To the Chase family...my true heartfelt sympathy. I wish I could be there for the service.

“ We could always count on Mark to keep things interesting around the office. He always kept us on the edge of our seats...! But while he kept us all guessing his next move, he knew the business as well as anybody. That's why we could never keep him around for very long before some other company recognized his value and snapped him up....At least we got to keep in touch with him...

We've all lost a very unique co-worker and friend. But I'm sure the angels in Heaven are happily debating with him right now over who should be pitching for the Tigers tonight.

I pray now that God will wrap his arms around the family in the days ahead and hold them tight in his comforting love.

“ Mark,

It has been a whirlwind trying to understand why this has happened, but at the end of the day I have to remind myself to be thankful.

Thankful for the moments we had, the laughter we shared and the memories we will forever have.

You were a great man, honest and sincere and one who never lost sight of who you were.

You taught me that love does exist no matter the circumstance or distance.

Thank you for being part of Kaylas life and raising her with me as your own.

We love you and miss you and you'll be forever in our hearts.

Love,
Rhonda

“ Mark was a very dear friend and he will never be forgotten. He was that rare individual that you could go to with anything that was on your mind and he could make you feel at ease. Always looking out for everybody else and never for himself and never asking for anything in return. He lived life very simply how God wants us to live and for that I know he is looking down on us and is still taking care of us

“ Mark was the best brother a sister could ask for. He was a protector, friend, comedian, philosopher, etc. He was the most caring person you will ever meet. Anyone who he met was a friend. He was taken away too soon. He will be missed but never forgotten. I will love you always Mark.

“ When you live in a neighborhood with people and their kids you become a large family. With all the kids growing up in Hazel Park together Mark was so much a part of that family. Mark maybe gone from this world now but he will live own forever in the hearts of those that knew him. My thoughts, prayers and love goes out to all of the family there. R.I.P. Mark

“ Marky-Mark - You had such a positive impact on my life as well as many others. We are all much better people for having you in our lives. I will cherish the time we spent together talking about the day to day grind, arguing about if it's correct or not and traveling together for work. Having lunch with you was something I always looked forward to since we got a chance to talk about all the things we enjoyed in our personal lives, Football, Music, Cars, etc., the list goes on. We only got to know each other for a short time but I feel like I'd known you my whole life, that's the type of guy you were. you made people feel welcome no matter the circumstance or occasion. You were truly an "Original" and a man of your word. I wish we could have had more time my brother...

We love and miss you Mark!
