“ I met Marlene when I became friends with her daughter Renee when I was 18. Marlene was a kind, happy, funny, sweet warm, creative lady. She always allowed her kids to have friends over at the house and she would laugh right along with us. She was a homemaker and made a wonderful environment for her kids, family and friends to feel warm and invited. She will be missed, Rest In Peace Marlene cheers to alive well lived. Sincerely, Terri DeOliveira
