“ I think about you everyday and all day. I miss you so much and it hurts, but I know that you're with Papa and Uncle George and you guys are probably having a one heck of a time being silly and funny. I have your rosary and I sleep with it next to me. I miss you Grandma and you will always have the biggest piece of my heart that is only for you.

“Mrs. Crigger was our wonderful next door neighbor during our formative years on Kelsey Drive. She was my mother Dorothy’s best friend and she saw my sister Joan and I grow into adults and parents. She was truly a happy person with a giant heart that adored her kids and spouse. Her and Dot are having coffee looking down on us happy to be together again. We grieve with Bev and Jimmy sharing many memories. Jerry Kocsis.
