“ Dear Mary Ann,

We will miss you very much! We enjoyed your visits to Massachusetts in the summertime with Jim. The grand kids remember playing four-square in the driveway, trips to the North End in Boston, Perkins Cove in Maine, lobster rolls, and overnights in the hotel. We talked a lot in our kitchen and shared recipes and family stories. Geneva loved walking with you in the North End and the Italian lunches – especially Umberto’s. Vienna was excited to grow a green bean plant this year as we know how much you enjoyed gardening. Julian remembers when you would buy them creamsicles at the hotel. All the grandchildren enjoyed the cookies from grandma that you would send in birthday packages.

We hope you can now hear the voices of others who loved you very much like Baba, Dodo, Jenny, Jonathan, and Kenny. You'll always be remembered in our hearts and how much love you have for Jim, Kris, and Mark. May you read endlessly and welcome love and happiness into your heart.

*Your loving daughter in-law,
Joanna Sganga*
