“ I know her Sweet Adeline pals, her St. Jane choir friends, and her close friends and family and Fred will miss her. It's a shame that her last months on earth were so painful.

I enjoyed taking her & Fred to her place on the river for a few days last spring. The Christmas Day dinner she attended at our house was memorable. We will miss her.

“ Guess God was ready for a female bass in His heavenly choir. Mary Ann's friendship and voice will be missed in St. Jane's choir. Marge

“ I hope at the end of my life I am surrounded by people who love me unconditionally. By neighbor's like Bill and Nancy Burr who care enough to come check on me. By friends like Nancy Morrissey who can stand toe to toe with me and remind me when my stubbornness needs to be put in check and can love me in spite of my stubbornness. By grandchildren who even though I disagree with their choices know that all that really matters is to love one another, by a son or daughter in law that loves my child so much that they remain supportive and caring all the days of their life, and by my children who remain loving, faithful and loyal despite the times we have disagreed. And I hope people remember how I loved to laugh often, serve my lord through singing, feeding and clothing the hungry, participating in many church ministries. And I hope people pray for me like I prayed for this dear woman. Mary Ann, I thank God we met 15 years ago. You brought me great joy. I am sorry this past year was so painful. I felt your body relax when I whispered to you the Angels were singing your name, and you left this painful body shortly afterwards. I hope the Angels led you right to heaven and that Jesus greeted you with open arms.
