“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to this close family. My husband and I grew up on Bloom and Moenart and my inlaws belonged to St. Bart's. Derby hill was my backyard with many good memories of baseball games with this family, especially "Tootsie" whom everyone wanted on their team! Mary is truly with the good Lord and his angels, taking care of the family on earth! Take care, Doris and Mark Dybowski

“ Dear Family of Mary -- Please accept my most sincere sympathy on the passing of Mary. I was stationed at St. Bart's for many years along with Fr. Ugolik and Miller, and I remember Mary as a kind, fun loving, hard working woman of faith. She was truly dedicated to St. Bart's and worked hard for it. We always had gret fun working together, and especially when we would have our Polka Dance trips. She was a great and generous women, Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. May her soul rest in peace. Brother Ambrose (TOM)
