“ I worked and was friends with Mary back in the Tim and Sallys days along with her and Dawn Kennedy and Sharon Francis. She was such a wonderful kind and generous person! She taught me how to crochet the granny square which I still do to this day!! She had such a wonderful laugh and never had anything bad to say about anyone or anything! She was a good friend and it was a sad day when she moved away!! God be with her and her family during this hard and sad time. She is now an angel watching intently over her family which I believe she would do with all heart and soul!! She will be greatly missed!!!

“ To the family of Mary Beth Richardson: Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ Still, at funerals mourners often say something like, “Life must go on.” And indeed it does. Please take comfort in know that your loved one is no longer suffering. According to Ecclesiastes 9:5, 6, 10, the dead—both humans and animals—are conscious of nothing at all. Why? There is no activity, feeling, emotion, or thought in death. We do have hope according to Isaiah 25:8, Jehovah God is going to swallow up death forever.
