“ I remember the first time Jim took me to meet his Grandma Hoste. She was so kind and accepted me with open arms, as if she had already knew me. She made me feel so comfortable. I loved being around her, she was so uplifting and always happy. She was so positive and saw the good in everything, even near the end I would always hear her say "well, it could be worse." Because of Grandma, I am now a much more positive person. I will miss her dearly and she will forever be in my heart :)

“ When everyone gathered at Aunt Chris' for Christmas Day, the entire family... We'd enjoy an amazing feast together and then get ready to open gifts. The best part of opening gifts was looking over and watching both grandma and grandpa smiling and enjoying the presence of the whole family being together. Grandpa was the rock of our family and Grandma was the most caring and gentle person. I will constantly think of each of them smiling together and holding hands. You will be greatly missed and never forgotten.
Love,
Cindy

“ Aunt Tillie was a legend. She will be sadly missed. We, in Lecheneville, always looked so forward to her and Uncle Ray's visit to Pennsylvania. She always filled a room with happiness and laughter. We pray for peace and comfort to her immediate family, knowing she is home with her True Love, Uncle Ray.

“ My best memories are of walking into Grandma's house on a holiday and smelling all of the delicious foods. She made the best chocolate chip cookies, pineapple squares, and broccoli casserole! Whenever I stopped by to visit she would make me lunch and we would sit and chat. She was there for all of our birthdays, sacraments, and graduations. Grandma was an example of love, faith, and devotion to family.

Grandmas house was a place you could go after a very stressful day and leave feeling happy without even talking about what was stressing you out. The kindness and love would just push all the bad away. A visit with Grandma was like literally leaving your troubles at the door without really even aiming to do so. - Jim Hoste
