“ So sorry to hear about Matt. He was a very kind person and fun to be around at work. Always brought a smile to my face when he was around. He's in a better place now but is gone much too soon.

“ To Matt's Grandmother, parents, and family. . . I am so sorry for your loss. I can only imagine what you are going through and how much you miss him. Matt was a kind, thoughtful, young man with such a big heart who was taken too soon for any of us to understand. It hurts my heart to think he won't be stopping over to visit with us ever again with his friendly smile and stories. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ No words we say can even come close to make this kind of situation easier for you and your family. Just know that God's love is beyond all measures and has welcomed Matthew home. May the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ give you and your family peace as you go through Matt's passing and remain with you in your journey till we are united with him again one day.
