Mennis E. Siler, 92 beautiful years of life. First and foremost, he was a man of God. Devoted and loving husband to his wife, Edna, for 73 years. He was a humble man who was born and raised in the Appalachian Mountains Pioneer, Tennessee. He started his life as a coal miner before moving to Michigan to raise his 4 children: Regina, Roger, Pamela, and Doyle. He was also an incredible papaw, great papaw, and great-great papaw. Mennis was very loyal to his Detroit Tigers; he never missed an opportunity to watch a game. He was able to start a conversation with anyone, anywhere, at any time. He always made everyone feel like he had known them forever. As a man of many friends, Mennis will be very missed, but his presence will be in our hearts for eternity.
