Whether I was babysitting or teaching Sunday school I always knew Michael would keep me my toes. His curly hair and mischievous smile. And big hugs when no one was watching always made my heart smile.

Chuck and Judy, My Sincere Condolences on the passing of your Son Michael and sorry that I was just made aware of this, as I would have extended my Condolences personally.
Having two adult sons, I can't imagine the pain and feeling of anguish and loss, you all must feel at this time and can only hope and pray that the fond memories of his life will eventually shine bright in the hearts, of all that loved and knew him. God Bless,
