“ Dear Margaret and the rest of the Chupa Family--

I was saddened to hear about Mike's passing. When the Good Lord calls our loved ones home, He leaves a gift of memories in exchange. May the happy memories Mike provided carry you and your family through this sorrowful time.

“ I will miss Mike. He was a funny, nice, honest, and loving person. He loved talking about his family. I enjoyed working with him. He is doing God's work in Heaven now. God bless you all.

“ I'm deeply saddened by your loss. I really cherish the memories of the time I worked for/with Mike. My prayers are with you.

I am grateful to this day that Mike hired me as a 'rookie' in 1984, during the last 'big recession', when there were so few jobs left in the Auto Body industry.

And- when I had a tough personal crisis, Mike showed to find faith in times of crisis.

My most sincere thoughts and prayers are with you.
