“ Mike always seemed to show up in my life when I needed it the most. His hearty laugh lifted my spirits. We would run into each other at the most random places. I remember one time when I was outside a construction site close to the Renaissance Center. I heard my name being shouted. Way way up in the sky I saw him waiving and I burst out laughing. That was Mike, always there, making me laugh. I regret that I never told him how much I appreciated his friendship and kindness. To me he was bigger than life. He is missed by the entire Gruenburg family
