

Milica Grezlovska

July 20, 1946 - December 3, 2018

Milica Grezlovska, 72, died December 3, 2018 after being diagnosed with liver disease a short time ago. She was born July 20, 1946, in the village of Lubojno, Macedonia, daughter to Eftin and Zorka Grezlovski (Mitrevska). She is survived by her son, Jon Stoyanov and his wife Barbara of Sterling Heights; granddaughters, Brenna Stoyanov and Kailyn Stoyanov; one brother, Branko Ristovski and his wife, Sonja; nephews Toni Ristovski and Deni Ristovski; as well as numerous other relatives.

Unlike many children, Milica loved to study. Many times Zorka had to tell her to stop reading and go to bed! She graduated high school in 1964. She married shortly thereafter, and in 1967 welcomed her son Jon. They lived in Ohrid, Macedonia before moving to Austria for a year, ultimately settling in Hamtramck, Michigan. After divorce, Milica devoted herself to raising her son. Milica loved music, song and dance, and one of Jon's fond memories is hearing her singing - whether along with the radio, or by herself - many times as he grew up.

Milica lived joyously, and the sound of her laughter was contagious. People immediately felt at ease when they met her. She made even a new acquaintance feel like an old friend. Milica loved cooking, and her hot peppers, gravce and potato salads were staples at family gatherings. Milica was affectionately known as Millie - or Baba Mika to her two granddaughters.

Rest in peace, sweet Milica, and watch over us until we meet again.
