“ We have lived across the street from milica for over twenty years, we have been blessed to have such amazing neighbors all this time. They will be dearly missed💔

“ Milica, was my neighbor for many years, she dearly loved her family, was a very sweet and kind lady. She definitely made the world a better place by being here. Her family was blest to have had her. She's home now with her Ani and all is well now. Rita Sierra

Milicia was our next door neighbor for many years. I remember her crocheting very fancy doilies, starching them, and standing them up with toothpicks. They were so intricate and beautiful!!! A work of amazing art! And I can never forget her out in their garden that had about 200 pepper plants in it and her bare feet working up the soil. No wonder those for the best peppers ever. And sometimes she would grill them on their grill, and that scent would drift into our kitchen window. It was wonderful . Then there was her tegunza that she made. It is like fried dough and the taste is heavenly. I remember Erik asking Melicia if she would make tegunda for his class! Not only did Melissa make to Tegunza for his class but she also brought a costume home for him to wear to school that day. They were studying different countries and he chose Yugoslavia, of course.

There were times that she got locked out of her house and would come to our house. I tried to tell her to keep a key at our house but there was always a language barrier! And I remember that she could muddle along in her English until one of the twins were around to translate for her.

She was a great neighbor and certainly wonderful to have her living next-door to us. She is an institution!!!
