“ Nancy became my sister when she married Wayne at only 15-16 years old. Though timid and shy at first she grew to become a loving, joyful, loyal, tenacious wife, mother, friend and my confidante. Her faith and intelligence and hunger for knowledge made her a source of great comfort, encouragement and wisdom. I loved her dearly, we all did. She longed to see Jesus so I Know she is dancing for joy at being with Wayne, her Mom and Dad and family. We'll miss you sweet Nancy.
