“ Dear Kathy,

We send our sincere condolences as you face the loss of your mom. We also realize that her passing so close to her dear husband and your dad seems as though it was meant to be. You have been through so much related to their illnesses and the losses, but knowing you, you will soon move to the place where happy memories will begin to fill the deep void. You can take solace in knowing that you were a wonderful daughter who always filled them with so much pride as you continued through life from childhood to an accomplished woman. You loved your parents deeply and dearly, and they knew it.

We wish you and Mike peace as you close out this chapter.

Thinking of you both!

“ You were the best Mom ever and will never be forgotten. You and Dad were only apart for 80 days and you spent every one praying to be reunited. You did not deserve to suffer and I am happy you are finally where you want to be. Hope you are celebrating in heaven with all those who you longed to be with that have passed. You left a legacy of love and I am proud to be among those you cherished, may you rest in peace now. All my love, Diane.
