“ Bill and family, Carol and Stacy-I'm saddened for your loss but rejoice to hear that Nicki is with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I knew Nicki only as a 2nd cousin, before I was a believer, and only then when she was a child on her visits to her grandparents in Troy. I have read many of these condolences and I'm encouraged that our Lord reached into her life and helped mold her into the person she was. My heartfelt prayers are with you and your family in this difficult time.

“ to Bill and the family, Nicki was the best at everything she touched and she touched everyone that knew her. She was always there for whomever had a life issue or a work issue. She took the time to sit and listen and she always let you lean on her. God has truly blessed those of us who have had a private personal relationship with her. We, her friends will truly miss her smile and her laughter. She truly blessed us all. May God give you her family the peace and understanding that you need to get you thru these days ahead. She will be missed by us all. She was everyone's BESTIE!

“ Nicki never once introduced me to anyone as her sister-in-law...only her sister. She always fought for the underdog. She was passionate about what she loved, and one of the least selfish people I've ever been blessed to know. I will always hold a special place in my heart for her along with some wonderful memories. I love you sister. Love you, love you..Na,Juju & Matt

“ Dear Carol, Stacy, Bill, Britney & Megan-

Please accept my deepest condolences during this especially hard time.

While I did not know Nicki, I have had the pleasure of working with Stacy for the past many years and through that have an insight into just how much Nicki was loved and will be missed by many.

Please know that you and yours are in my family's thoughts.

“ Dear Stacy, Carol and Billy,
I did not know Nicki but having worked with her big sister Stacy at Chrysler and reading these tributes she must have been a special gift from God on loan till he decided to bring her home. I believe when we cry, God cries...when we hurt, He hurts. He knows your pain and will comfort like only he can. Billy, thank you for your words of encouragement and showing the strength and hope God is providing. You all will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Bill:
Renee and I send our deepest condolences to you at the Homegoing of your beloved wife Nicki. I only met Nicki once but I always knew how much you loved her because you told me on numerous occasions. Your love for the Lord Jesus Christ and the love for your wife and family was truly an inspiration to both Renee and myself. Thank you for your love and friendship over these many years and please know that we will be continuing to lift you up to our Heavenly Father in our prayers that He would comfort, guide, lead, direct and sustain you by the power of His precious Holy Spirit in the days ahead and all the days of your life.
With all of of love,
Steven and Renee Morabito

“ I feel blessed to have had Nicki as my stepmom. It took me 13 years to really realize how much she meant to me and what a good person she really was. For all the bad times we had, there were always 2 more good times to make up for it. She was smart, beautiful, and full of life. I will love and miss her forever.

“ Nicki was the best stepmom. We had our fueds but all families do. Everything about her was a mystery i never knew quiet how to read her. We shared a passion for animals and childs play. She did what she wanted and thats what i want to carry on from her free spirit. Nobody could stop her from being the person she wanted to be. I wish I had more time to ask her questions and just talk. She understood so much. I miss her and I love her but she lives on in everybody she knows.

“ Bill and Family - God bless you and comfort in your loss. We all have so many wonderful memories of times spent with Nicki - she was truly a blessing and inspiration as she struggled through all the pain of the last couple of years. We will surely miss her, but praise God that she is safely in His care now.

“ I'd like to thank the Lord for all the kind sentiments like Mark and Lisa and so many who have called, textd' an emailed me these last days. I am especially thankful that the Good Lord has shown so much mercy in taking Nicki into His arms softly and tenderly, and no one can take her from Him ever (John 10:29). Highest praise be to Jesus for preparing a place for my dearest Nicki. I do miss her and will always love her. Thank you again for the honor of knowing you. i am, yours with deepest affection, Billy
