

Nino J. Rea

December 30, 1959 - July 18, 2023

Nino J. Rea

Born December 30, 1959, called to Heaven July 18, 2023

Beloved son of the late Tony Rea Sr and Edith Rea.

Beloved brother of Angela, Donna (John), the late Dominic, Tony (Terese), Nina (Graham), Dino (Fran), Angelo (Michael), Elena (Mike), Diana (Kirk), Gino (Shannon), and Mario (Amy).

Dear Uncle of Anthony (Natalie), Jay, Ross (Antonietta), Maria (Chris), Chris (Meagan), Pete (Rachel), Andrew (Sarah), Tony, Lauren (Brian), Johnny, Michael, Francesca, Dominic, Angelina, Dillon and Zachary.

Dear Great Uncle to Gianna, Audriana, Gabriella, Charlotte, Cora, Giovanni, Brenden, Noah, Jane, Jack, and the late Anthony Nathaniel.

Nino was born on December 30, 1959, and grew up in a family of 12 brothers and sisters. He was the 7th child born to his proud parents, having joined six other siblings and not yet knowing that there would be five more to come. He was born between two other brothers with the three of them becoming known as the “3 little boys” throughout their childhood. As with most of the older kids in the family, he was assigned a crazy nickname from his older brother Dominic. Nino was given the nickname of “Boo-nu,” a nickname that Nino took pride in, and one that stuck with him throughout his entire life.

In addition to working in the Marketing field (in which he obtained his college degree), Nino was also very active in the food industry. Nino was a great cook, following in his mom's footsteps, and spent a lot of time in the kitchen. He was perhaps the happiest while cooking, always wanting to help, always loving when he could assist with the many family dinners or planning new food creations for his many friends.

A bit later in life, Nino found a calling for assisting the youth. He became a tutor and worked in alternative school programs mentoring many young people as they completed their high school educations.

Nino was loud, and had an infectious laugh and smile, always joking, and always singing. Nino always took pride in being the "favorite uncle" to his nephews and nieces. He was very proud of his Italian heritage and his large family, and loved deeply, cherishing his family, friends, Vince and Gerardo as well as all of his beloved pets. Nino loved being on Facebook to keep up with family and friends, and to discover new family members.

Nino was very strong and determined. He had a kind soul and was very brave despite some of the challenges that life threw his way. He faced life's battles valiantly, and persevered and continued even when the road was very difficult.

Nino possessed a very strong faith. He loved God and served God his entire life. He is now at peace with the God he so loved and is certainly being rewarded with the peace he so deserves. Everyone who knew Nino knows that he is now in God's presence saying: "I have fought a good fight. I have finished the race. I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing" (2 Timothy 4:7-8).

Nino will be greatly missed by his entire family and all of his friends. He joins his mother and father, and his brother Dominic in Heaven where he can certainly claim the reward that Jesus promises to his faithful followers.

The family will greet friends on Saturday, September 9th at at Community Christian Church at 10:00am with a memorial service starting at 11:00am. Interment at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Donations may be made in Nino's memory to Community Christian Church Food Pantry at 42400 Ryan Road, Sterling Heights, MI 48314.

“ Heaven is singing Hallelujah, as Nino has gained his wings and entered the Kingdom of God. So, so many great memories and laughter, knowing Nino for decades was such a gift. Truly will be missed by all who knew and loved you my friend.

“ God Bless You Boo-Nu! Our hearts really hurt without you around, but we know that you are in heaven and at peace which you have truly earned. You are loved and missed by us all. Thank you for all the great and funny memories, just wish we could've had a few more. The brothers dinner together will never be the same without you.

“ My heart goes out to each and every member of Nino's family and to all who loved him. What a great loss for all of us, but what a wonderful gain for Heaven. Nino is one of the few people that truly made this world a better place. His absence will leave a huge impact on many and a hole in all of our hearts. Until we meet again, dear friend. Ciao bello “ Sending so much love to Nino's family and friends. I'm so very sorry for the loss of beloved Nino. Nino was such a kind, funny, generous, and loving man.

Once we had to leave town and before we mentioned that we needed to find someone to watch Sterling, our Golden Retriever, Nino offered to petsit. To ease our anxiety, we got blow by blow updates of Sterling and Ginger's escapades. Sterling loved Nino too!

I'll remember his infectious smile and laugh and I loved that he referred to almost everyone as a mother scratcher. Nino's love for his family was such a part of every cell of his being.

This photo is from the baking "class" my mom had with Nino and dear friend, Fran.

I imagine Nino's homecoming with his Heavenly Father and the reunion with his loved ones was an amazing event! I know that those he left behind are better for knowing him. Nino, it may take an eternity, but I hope my mom is able to convince you that oregano only belongs in sauce for pizza, not pasta.

RIP Ninuccio <3

Thank you so much for your kind words. Your comment re: the oregano makes me smile every time I read it. I can only imagine the conversation you had with Nino re: that. Nino loved everything about cooking. Thank you again.

Ps. I agree with Nino. Oregano belongs in sauce for pasta too! Lol.

“ Once again our family chain has broken. Once again our hearts are broken. We want to say that we love you Nino and that we will miss you as we continue to place our trust in God. We know that you have found the love and peace that you so deserve from the God you have served your whole life. Rest in peace in paradise forever in God’s presence as you rejoin and rejoice with mom, dad, and Dominic. You are forever in our hearts ❤️. Your brother Dino ❤️.
