

Norman Tomajko

June 25, 1928 - August 4, 2025

Norman Tomajko, age 97, former resident of Roseville, Michigan, passed away peacefully surrounded by his loving family, on August 4, 2025.

Born on June 25, 1928, Norman lived a long and fulfilling life grounded in hard work, humor, and love for his family. As a young man, he was the proud owner of a Shell Gas Station, then worked for and retired from General Motors, where he was a proud and dedicated employee. His work ethic and pride in his accomplishments are matched only by the joy he found in his family.

Norman was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 70 years, Julia Tomajko; his siblings, Anna Tomajko and William (Helen) Tomajko; his son-in-law, Jim Chamberlin and many cherished relatives.

He is survived by his loving children; Greg (Terri), Kathy (Gary) Nelson, Debbie Chamberlin, Carol (Carey) Colasanti and Mary (Neal) Lowey. Norman was a proud grandfather to Christopher (Crystal), Katie (John), Keith (Jenn), Nathan (Tanner), Stacey, Brian (Kelsey), Mario and Dominic (Jennifer), as well as a deeply loved GGPA to Dominic, Taylor, Jordan, Lily, Olivia, Luke, Jacob, Emberly, Aulora, Whit, Juliana, and Enzo.

Norman also leaves behind his niece Susan, his cousins and a legacy of laughter and love. His grandchildren, great grandchildren and even his many "grand dogs" brought him immense pride and happiness.

Known for his quick wit and sense of humor, Norman brought happiness to every room he entered. He loved traveling up north, watching the Detroit Tigers, playing checkers, scrabble, doing puzzles and generously supported the Solanus Casey Cappuchin ministries throughout his life.

Norman's memory will be a source of strength, inspiration and joy to all who knew and loved him.

In Norman's memory, donations to Solanus Casey Cappuchin ministries are appreciated.

“ Thinking about you the last couple of days and the word “special “ kept coming to mind so I looked up the definition of special. It says surpasses the normal, distinguished, different, better than the ordinary, not usual, unique. Sir Norman all of these things You were to both Ed and myself, we will miss you. Rest in our Lord’s Peace.
