

Patricia Ann "Patt" Gilly

March 11, 1943 - December 19, 2024

Patricia Ann Gilly (Patt) died at home on December 19th, 2024. She was born 81 years ago in Independence, Louisiana, to Arnold and Nettie (Cuevas) Jones. She is preceded in death by her husband of 54 years Gary Alan Gilly. She is also preceded in death by her sister, Sue (Gene) Holcomb and her brothers James (Vivian), Maurice, Paul (Catherine) and Marvin (MaryAnn) Jones. She was the youngest of six children.

She is survived by her children Paul (Mey) Gilly and Michelle (Kevin) Crosby, as well as her grandchildren, Kristopher, Mitchell and Gabrielle Gilly and Anna and Luke Crosby.

She spent the majority of her professional life as a middle school math teacher. She had a passion for sewing, decorating cakes and in more recent years, making jewelry and rosaries.

In 2021, she moved to Sterling Heights Michigan, to be near her daughter and family.

Patt will be remembered by all who knew her as a faithful and devout Catholic Christian woman, who loved her dogs as if they were her children.

A Memorial Visitation will be held at 10:00am followed by a Memorial Mass at 11:00am on Friday, March 7th, 2025 at Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Pass Christian, Mississippi. Luncheon to follow at the parish hall.

“ Rest well, Aunt Patt! Your hard work is done here. We love you. You were the last of a legendary family to leave this earth. You left a lot of beauty behind and you will be remembered.
